

Unlimited Potential Community Services empowers individuals and families to reach their full potential and enhance community well-being.

FULL-TIME HOUSE MANAGER - TERRITORY TREATMENT CENTRE – YELLOWKNIFE, NWT

Unlimited Potential Community Services is committed to supporting Indigenous children, youth and families on their sacred path towards wellness. Unlimited Potential Community Services invites applicants with a good understanding of the Indigenous Culture, wisdom, history, and issues faced by Indigenous Peoples. Our goal is support each child and family to reach their full potential.

We provide ongoing group care treatment services and educational programs to emotionally and behaviorally troubled male and female children aged 7-12 years including those with FASD and mental health issues. We are looking for an individual who has a passion for working with these vulnerable children, becoming their role model and teaching them life skills through various activities. The successful candidate must also be willing to collaborate with other members of the professional team to develop plans that will assist our clients to once again become valued members of society.

Qualifications/Experience:

- A completed diploma/degree in Child and Youth Care Work or related area in Human Services;
- Minimum two years of supervisory experience combined with considerable experience in Child Care work;
- Good knowledge of child development theories, behaviour management techniques, intervention skills and family dynamics;
- Good understanding of health issues affecting youth such as FASD, mental health, suicide, other mental and behavioural issues;
- Demonstrated knowledge of safety and security measures;
- Good verbal and written communication skills with proven organizational and documentation skills;
- Able to work well in a team environment with the ability to handle stressful situations in a non-confrontational, problem solving manner is required;
- Good understanding of cultural differences and how they impact treatment approaches for children and youth;
- Program's first point-of-contact and on-call when needed.

Other requirements: A current, clear Police Information Check, Intervention Record Check, driver's license, current abstract and vehicle are all required. Must be willing to work shifts and weekends.

Salary & Benefits: $66,733.00 - $90,557.00 Annually. Plus a Vacation Travel Allowance of $5,400.00 per annum. Salary commensurate with experience and education. We also provide full-time employees with a 100% employer paid health benefits package (which includes vision, dental and prescription drug coverage, massage therapy, etc.), a 100% employer paid RRSP equaling 3% of annual salary, and a flexible schedule. We also offer free courses and workshops in-house for all of our employees.

Our values are integrity, respect, excellence, humility and relationships. If you meet the entrance criteria, hold similar values and are looking to join a dynamic team that works hard to empower and support families, please submit your resume and cover letter to:

Please fill out an Application with Resume and Cover Letter here

UP is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to building a safe, inclusive environment for people of all cultures and backgrounds; all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply. We thank all applicants for their interest; however, only those applicants under consideration will be contacted.